LILIUM HARRISII (The Bermuda Easter Lily)

Now ready

We offer a selected stock of the original true Harrisii for early forcing. These bulbs have been grown from the original pure Harrisii, and will be found to be splendid stock for early forcing, for which purpose Harrisii is so valuable. We have had the stock inspected, and are assured that it is almost absolutely pure and almost entirely free from disease. It is not stock picked up indiscriminately from different sources, but is grown from one stock, and will be found very superior to the ordinary Harrisii usually offered, both in regard to freedom from disease, and purity, and is not the late type now so often furnished.

For Christmas flowering, bulbs should be potted as early in August as they can be procured. For this purpose our 6 to 7-inch size is preferable, as this size can be brought into bloom much earlier than the larger bulbs. When forced for Christmas, they require a temperature of at least 65 degrees at night.

NOTE—We desire to call particular attention to the fact that we do not offer 5 to 7-inch bulbs as usually sold, but selected bulbs, measuring 6 to 7 inches, a much better grade of bulbs than is offered by other houses.

6 to 7-inch bulbs, 350 to the case, $5.50 per 100, $45.00 per 1000.

7 to 9-inch bulbs, 200 to the case, $9.00 per 100, $82.50 per 1000.

9 to 11-inch bulbs. Sold out.

Full case lots at thousand rates.

LILIUM CANDIDUM (The Annunciation Lily)

Ready in August

Mammoth bulbs, $6.00 per 100, $50.00 per 1000.

LILIUM FORMOSUM

Ready in September

A new, early type of Liliun Longiflorum, grown on the island of Formosa. Not quite so early as Harrisii, but much earlier than the regular Longiflorum. Claimed to be free from disease. Highly recommended by those who have tried it. The bulbs ripen very early, and can be delivered early in September.

7 to 9-inch bulbs, 250 to the case, $ 7.00 per 100, $60.00 per 1000.

9 to 10-inch bulbs, 200 to the case, $10.50 per 100, $95.00 per 1000.

Full case lots at thousand rates.

LILIUM GIGANTEUM

Ready in October

This flowers much more freely than Multiflorum, and the flowers are larger and longer and have more substance, but it blooms a little later, and requires a little more time to bloom. It is distinguished by its dark brownish stem. It should be grown cool until the buds are set, after which it will stand any amount of forcing.

7 to 9-inch bulbs, 300 to the case, $ 6.00 per 100, $ 52.50 per 1000.

9 to 10-inch bulbs, 200 to the case, $11.00 per 100, $100.00 per 1000.

Full case lots at thousand rates.

LILIUM LONGIFLORUM MULTIFLORUM

Ready in October

This is a selected type of Longiflorum. It is only a little more expensive than the ordinary Longiflorum, but is more than worth the slight difference in cost, as it blooms much more evenly and flowers much more abundantly.

7 to 9-inch bulbs, 300 to the case, $6.00 per 100, $50.00 per 1000.

9 to 10-inch bulbs, 200 to the case, $9.50 per 100, $85.00 per 1000.

Full case lots at thousand rates.

CALLAS

Now ready

Our bulbs are grown for us by one of the most careful and experienced growers on the Pacific coast. They are very carefully cured, and are perfectly sound, with good, strong centers—an important consideration. Growers will find that these dormant bulbs produce much finer flowers and in greater abundance than plants that have been flowered from year to year—the difference in results being so great that it well repays the seeming expense of an outlay for bulbs each year.

Selected bulbs, 1 3/4 inches in diameter, $10.00 per 100
Mammoth bulbs, 2 " " " " 12.00 " "

CALLA ELLIOTTANA (The Yellow Calla)

Ready in November

Flowers large, rich dark golden yellow. Leaves beautifully spotted with white. Valuable for fall planting in greenhouse for early spring flowering. Both cut flowers and pot plants bring the very highest prices at Easter. Bulbs potted in November will, in a night temperature of 55 degrees, bloom in about twelve weeks.

Extra sized bulbs, $3.00 per dozen, $20.00 per 100.

FREESIA REFRACTA ALBA

Now ready

Very large quantities of these bulbs are now grown for winter-flowering, as they are very useful and profitable, especially for small florists who sell their own flowers. The earlier this stock is planted, the better results will be obtained.

French-grown.—Mammoth bulbs, 3/4-inch in diameter, $1.50 per 100, $10.00 per 1000.

Purity.—Extra sized bulbs, $2.00 per 100, $15.00 per 1000.

ASTILBE, OR SPIREA

Ready in November

Gladstone.—This is by far the best of all the spireas for winter-flowering. No other spirea compares with it in any way. It flowers in immense feathery snow-white plumes, which are very freely produced. Case of 100 clumps for $8.00; less quantities, $1.25 per dozen.

Queen Alexandra.—A new pink spirea. Similar to Gladstone in habit, but flowers are a delicate rose-pink. Case of 100 clumps for $10.00; less quantities, $1.80 per dozen.

LILY OF THE VALLEY

New importation, ready in November

Pierson's Perfection.—This is an extra selected grade for those who desire the finest valley grown.

Price of valley has been driven down so low that it has been at the expense of quality, and growers are realizing that a really first-class article cannot be furnished at prices at which valley has been selling. The very best German valley grown has been sent to London and St. Petersburg to growers who have been willing to pay the price for a very superior article, and very few, if any, of the finest pips grown have reached this country; but there is beginning to be a demand here for a better grade of valley than is generally offered, and in order to meet this demand, we are importing this grade of pips, which we have had selected for us with great care, and which are the very finest pips grown. They will produce the largest spikes, with the largest number of bells, and will give the very largest percentage of first-quality flowers. We can recommend it without hesitation, knowing that it will give perfect satisfaction.

$2.00 per 100; $16.00 per 1000; $30.00 per case 2000 pips.

COLD-STORAGE LILY OF THE VALLEY

We carry only one grade of lily of the valley, and that

The very highest quality obtainable, for in lily of the valley, as in no other bulb, we have found that the best is the cheapest. Cold-storage valley should always be used for December and early January flowering; for, while new importations arrive in November, the new stock does not force easily or give the requisite amount of foliage so early in the season: so that the cold-storage stock should always be relied upon for December and January forcing. Owing to a severe drouth in Germany last year, extra fine valley is unusually scarce this season. At present we have a good supply, and can ship immediately on receipt of orders; but on account of scarcity of stock, it is advisable to place orders in advance for the quantity desired, which can be reserved, and shipped as wanted. Cold-storage stock must necessarily be shipped by express. It is not safe to ship it by freight, even short distances.

Cases containing 250 pips, $5.00 each.

Cases containing 500 pips, $9.50 each.

Cases containing 1000 pips, $18.00 each.

Clumps for Outdoor Planting.—Large clumps, $2.50 per dozen, $15.00 per 100.

FINE NAMED

We recommend this grade particularly for bedding, and it is also very satisfactory for forcing. The bulbs are a size smaller than the Selected Named, but can be offered at only a slight advance over the price of Mixed Hyacinths in Separate Colors, and, consequently, are much more desirable; for when bedded out or used for forcing, they bloom evenly and at one time, while the mixed hyacinths, no matter how carefully selected, bloom more or less irregularly and unevenly.

MINIATURE HYACINTHS, OR DUTCH ROMANS

Ready in September

These Dutch Romans are valuable not only for cutting, but also for growing in pans. They can even be used for bedding where a cheap hyacinth is desired, producing surprisingly large spikes of bloom, considering the size of the bulbs. We offer only the finest named sorts, which bloom evenly and at one time—those that have been found most satisfactory for forcing, and those that produce the largest spikes of bloom and of the most desirable colors. The bulbs are of the largest size and of first-class quality, and the prices at which they are offered should not be compared with the prices of inferior grades or of mixtures in separate colors usually offered, which bloom more or less irregularly, while our named sorts bloom evenly and at one time, making them very much more desirable and valuable.

FINEST VARIETIES FOR FORCING AND BEDDING

Gold Medal, Highest Award, Pan-American Exposition

The use of tulips for bedding for early spring-flowering is increasing from year to year, as nothing that can be planted gives such satisfactory returns for the outlay. The use of named varieties is constantly on the increase, as they are much more effective when planted in solid blocks, in separate colors, than when planted indiscriminately. We offer a large variety of the very finest sorts for bedding, and at prices which will permit the use of named varieties, as a great many of the kinds offered cost only a little more than mixed tulips, for which reason and the fact that they are much more effective when planted separately, we invariably advise their use, especially when planted in quantity. All the varieties offered are desirable for bedding, but all are not desirable for forcing. The descriptions indicate those best adapted and most valuable for forcing for winter.

Finest Mixed.—The mixed tulips offered by us are much superior to ordinary mixtures, being made up of very fine named varieties and containing a good proportion of the different colors. We can recommend this mixture to any one wanting mixed tulips. $1.00 per 100, $7.50 per 1000.

Single Late Tulips

These late-flowering tulips are very desirable on account of their late season of blooming and their showy flowers. They bloom after the early-flowering tulips are gone, and the flowers are exceedingly showy. They are borne on long stems—growing nearly three feet in height—and continue in flower from about the middle to the end of May, depending on the season and locality. In some localities they are in bloom as late as Decoration Day. As they bloom year after year, they should be planted where they will not be disturbed. They are particularly fine for planting in herbaceous borders and on the borders of shrubbery. They are also fine for cutting. This class of tulips is coming into great favor, and they should be planted more largely than they have been.

These prices will hold good only for early shipment, as we can not afford to sell at these prices later on, after plants have been potted and put into winter quarters for spring sale. New Rose, Killarney Brilliant

The Most Valuable Rose Introduced in Many Years.

We consider this new rose—a sport from the original pink Killarney—the most valuable rose that has been introduced in many years. It is well named Killarney Brilliant, on account of its brilliant color.

It is a great improvement on the original pink Killarney; first, because of its much more brilliant color, it being almost crimson in bright weather, while in midwinter—in dull, cloudy and foggy weather,—when the original pink Killarney loses its brilliancy and becomes badly faded, Killarney Brilliant is as bright and deep a pink as the original variety at its best. In addition to its great superiority in color, the flower is almost twice as large, having from twenty-five to forty full sized petals.

It has the same desirable color that Killarney Queen possesses, but has double the number of petals, making it a very double and a fuller flower; and it is also very much more productive, having the same habit of growth and the same freedom of bloom as its parent.

We have watched Killarney Brilliant growing during the past winter, planted in the same house with the original and the double pink Killarney, and when those varieties faded so as to be almost unmarketable, Killarney Brilliant was superb. We are thoroughly convinced that it will immediately supplant the original Killarney as the standard market variety, and that every up-to-date grower will be compelled to plant it, on account of its great superiority. A prominent rose grower, who has seen it growing, says it is the only rose he has ever seen that needs no advertising: it sells itself.

New White Carnation, Matchless

A New High-Grade White Carnation

Conceded to possess many advantages over other white carnations now in commerce
Awarded silver medal January last by the Horticultural Society of New York

Matchless is the coming commercial white carnation, having all the necessary qualities of a money-maker. It is a very vigorous grower, blooms very early, and is very productive. Flower is of the largest size, very fragrant, of good substance, and an exceptionally good keeper. It is a cross between White Perfection and Alma Ward, and was grown very extensively for cut flowers last season by the Cottage Gardens Company, with whom it originated. It has proved a great favorite in the New York market, where it brought the highest prices the past season. The illustration shown herewith is of a house of twelve thousand plants, which were benched July 10th, and from which cutting commenced September 14th.

Strong rooted cuttings, $12.00 per 100, $100.00 per 1,000

NEW CRIMSON CARNATION PRINCESS DAGMAR

A carnation that attracts instant attention on account of its mammoth size, flowers measuring three and a half to four inches in diameter. Flowers very dark crimson, borne on strong, stiff stems, which hold them perfectly erect. Calyx seldom splits. This variety was raised by Patten & Company, and the phenomenal character of the awards that it has received indicates its high quality better than any description can. It was awarded a silver medal by the Massachusetts Horticultural Society, Boston; gold medal, International Flower Show, New York; silver medal, Perpetual Flowering Carnation Society, England; bronze medal, American Carnation Society; bronze medal, Chicago Horticultural Society.

Strong rooted cuttings, $12.00 per 100, $100.00 per 1000.

Every one was charmed with it, and we were surprised at the demand for it. Any one who grows this for winter flowers will find it a very salable flower and a very profitable article. It produces large spikes of bloom thirty inches in length, of a most exquisite shade of silvery pink, borne on long stems. It blooms very freely.

Phelps's Winter-flowering White.—An extra choice white variety that should be grown as a companion to Buxton's Pink. Indispensable to the retail florist.

NEPHROLEPIS ELEGANTISSIMA COMPACTA

This dwarf, compact form of elegantissima, introduced by us in 1909, bears the same relation to that variety that Scottii does to Bostoniensis. The fronds are considerably shorter than those of elegantissima, and it throws a great many more crowns, making it a very bushy, compact, symmetrical plant. It has an ideal habit, and occupies a place by itself, being as distinct from elegantissima as that variety is from the original Piersoni. While it occasionally throws a few Boston fronds when growth is checked, its dwarf, compact habit makes it particularly desirable. It is especially valuable for growing in small-sized pots, making particularly fine, perfect specimens even in a 4-inch pot.

Plants from 2¼-inch pots, $6.00 per 100; 3½-inch, $3.00 per dozen; 6-inch, $6.00 per dozen; 8-inch, $12.00 per dozen.

NEPHROLEPIS MAGNIFICA

This is the daintiest of all the Nephrolepis. The fronds are very fine and filmy, on which account it has been called The Lace Fern. It is an improved variety and the best of this type. It makes a most beautiful plant, especially in the smaller sizes. Nothing is daintier or more exquisite than well-grown specimens in small pots up to 6-inch. Very perfect little specimens can be grown even in 2¼-inch pots. Fine for table decoration.

Plants from 3½-inch pots, $3.00 per dozen; 5-inch, $6.00 per dozen.

Nephrolepis elegantissima compacta

NEPHROLEPIS SUPERBISSIMA

A remarkable fern, originating with us and introduced in 1908. It is one of the most unique and distinct varieties ever introduced. Its distinguishing characteristics are its dense growth and dark green foliage. Fronds are very heavily imbricated, the pinnae overlapping, making the fronds very dense and compact. It has a very sturdy habit, and the fronds are very firm and rigid. It is absolutely distinct, not only in formation of its fronds and color of foliage, but also in its habit of growth and general characteristics. It is well named superbissima, as it is one of the most superb ferns. It was awarded a first-class certificate by the Royal Horticultural Society of London—its highest award—in 1908, the plants exhibited having been shipped from New York two weeks before that time. The same plants were then shipped to Edinburgh, Scotland, where they were again awarded a certificate by the Scottish Horticultural Association. This indicates not alone the value of the plant, but also demonstrates in a very conclusive manner its fine keeping and shipping qualities.

NEPHROLEPIS MUSCOSA (The Moss Fern)

This new Nephrolepis, introduced by us in 1911, is a sport from superbissima, and has the same rich dark color, but the foliage is very fine and moss-like, which suggested the name, as this is the distinctive characteristic of the plant. It makes a very beautiful, distinct, and refined plant, especially in the small sizes, making most beautiful specimens in small pots. Its distinctiveness and beauty commend it to all plant lovers.

Plants from 3½-inch pots, $3.00 per dozen; 5-inch, $6.00 per dozen.

NEPHROLEPIS PIERSONI ELEGANTISSIMA

Of the many varieties of Nephrolepis, beginning with Piersoni, introduced by us in 1903, we consider this new and improved form of elegantissima by far the most valuable of all. By selection, we have succeeded in fixing a perfect form, which shows no tendency whatever to revert to the original type, it never having thrown a single Boston frond in the eight years that we have grown it, for which reason it is much superior to the original elegantissima, Whitmani, Todeaoides, etc. Many firms would have introduced this new and improved form under another name and at a high price, but we have a pride in perpetuating it under its original name. It outsells any other variety, and we have no hesitation in pronouncing it the most beautiful and most salable of all the varieties of Nephrolepis yet introduced.

Plants from 2¼-inch pots, $6.00 per 100; 6-inch, $6.00 per dozen; 8-inch, $12.00 per dozen; extra large specimens, 10-inch, $3.00 each; 12-inch, $5.00 each.

NEPHROLEPIS HARRISII

This is a very superior and distinct type of Bostoniensis, being similar to that popular variety, except that the fronds are convoluted, or wavy, and, also, broader and more sharply pointed. The pinnae are beautifully fluted, making it very distinct and beautiful.

Plants from 2¼-inch pots, $6.00 per 100; 6-inch, $6.00 per dozen; 8-inch, $12.00 per dozen; 10-inch, $2.00 to $3.00 each; 12-inch, $5.00 each.
